F.B. EMERY

The progenitor of the Barrett family in America from which our line descends was Arthur Barrett, who was born in England. His parentage I have not as yet discovered. Some say his father was Ralph Barrett, an English Earl, who owned estates in England which were confiscated by the British government during the persecution of the Quakers.

There were, to be sure, Barretts in England of noble birth, and a Barrett coat-of-arms is in existence; but I have no proof of descent beyond the emigrant Arthur. The Barrett motto is "Honor, Virtue and Probity".

Arthur Barrett was a member of the Society of Friends, and the first record of him in America appears in the Quaker records in 1705 when he was married at Concord Monthly Meetings in Pennsylvania. This would place his date of birth about 1680. The Society of Friends had its origin in England in the middle of the seventeenth century, so it is conceivable that Arthur's parents were likewise of this faith. The Quakers in England were severely persecuted until the Toleration Act of 1689.

Much of the information in the account which follows has been obtained from research in Quaker church records, from wills and deeds, census records, etc., and from family Bible records. Data obtained from living descendants and from county histories comprise the other sources. As a whole, I feel that the information is accurate, although there are undoubtedly some unavoidable errors.

I am indeed indebted to the many relatives who have been so cooperative in supplying me with data concerning their particular branches of the Barrett family. It is for these that I am recording this information, in order that it will be available to any and all who are interested. The record is not complete, and I would welcome any additions or corrections to it.

The suggestion of the Barrett family is a family name which and the descendants was Arthur Barrett, who was born in England.
His parents I have not yet discovered. Some say his father was Ralph Barrett, an English lord, who owned estates in England which were confiscated by the British government during the revolution of the 17th century.

There were, to be sure, Barretts in England of noble birth, and a Barrett coat-of-arms is in existence; but I have no proof of descent beyond the English Arthur. The Barrett motto is "Honor, Virtue and Industry."

Arthur Barrett was a member of the Society of Friends, and the first record of him in America appears in the Quaker records in 1702 when he was married at Concord Monthly Meeting in February.
This would place the date of birth about 1680. The Society of Friends had its origin in England in the middle of the seventeenth century, so it is conceivable that Arthur's parents were living at this time. The Quakers in England were severely persecuted until the Toleration Act of 1689.

Most of the information in the account which follows has been obtained from records in Quaker church records, from wills and deeds, census records, etc., and from family Bible records. It has been obtained from living descendants and from county records. I prize the other sources. As a result, I feel that the information is accurate, although there are undoubtedly some unavoidable errors.

I am indebted to the many relatives who have been so cooperative in supplying me with data concerning their particular branches of the Barrett family. It is for these that I am recording this information, so that it will be available to any and all who are interested. The record is not complete, and I would welcome any additions or corrections to it.

COAT OF ARMS

Description:

SHIELD: Ermine of a fesse (broad horizontal Stripe across the middle of the shield) glues (red) three lions rampant (fighting position) or (gold)

CREST: Lion couchant proper (natural color)

Explanation:

In heraldry, ermine is the fur denoting judgship or a judicial position. Many think that it refers in some way to royalty, but this is not true. It is as the supreme judge of the realm that the monarch used ermine, not in his royal capacity. This is due to the fact that ermine hate dirt of any kind, and the Anglo-Saxon has always believed that his judge should be "clean". Red is the color of war, danger, courage and love of combat and adventure, while gold is the metal denoting strength, authority and wealth.

The fesse or broad horizontal band across the middle of the shield is called an honorable ordinary, which simply means one of the honorable charges most ordinarily used. It is a mark of noble blood and knighthood, and takes its shape from the sword belt of the knight. The lion is the symbol of the mighty warrior, especially in the rampant or fighting position. There are three for the Holy Trinity. The lion in the crest denotes one who, though powerful and brave, prefers peace. The helmet is in profile and is of steel color, as it should be. Only those who actually bear titles are entitled to display a helmet of other metal or in other position. The mantling, or decorative matter around the shield, has no especial shape, and is left to the discretion of the artist. The only heraldic rule as to the mantle (sometimes called the Lambrequin) in British arms was that it must be in the livery colors mentioned in the blazon. The mantle takes its name from the cloak or mantle which the mounted warrior or knight wore suspended from his helmet to protect him from the elements. This mantle would become cut and slashed in combat, and the knight was very proud of these rents. He usually had them patched in contrasting colors to make them more noticeable.

There is no motto with the Barrett family coat of arms because of its antiquity. Early arms did not often have mottoes.

BARRETT FAMILY

The name Barrett is of French origin and means "the bright or illustrious one". It is said that the family first came to England in the army of William the Conqueror. They seem to have first resided in County Cambridge, for they are found there in the Domesday Book (1085 A. D.) and later in Ragman's Roll and the Roll of the Hundreds. Subsequently they spread into Lincolnshire and Essex, and still later to Ireland. Upon the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, others of the name fled to England as Huguenots. Many of the name came to the American Colonies at an early date, and the name is found in every one of the thirteen colonies before 1700. There were 373 Barretts who served in the Colonial Army in the Revolution.

B A R R E T T

1. ARTHUR BARRETT, born in England, probably about 1680, came to America as a young man. He and Lydia Chambers declared their intentions to marry for the first time at Concord Monthly Meetings in Chester County, Pennsylvania, on 4/11/1705; for the second time on 5/9/1705; and on 6/13/1705 the marriage was reported to have been "accomplished in an orderly fashion".

Arthur Barrett received a grant of 300 acres of land in Chester Co., Pa., on 9/5/1714. In 1719, he went to Gloucester, England, on business, but returned the following year. On 5/29/1733, he obtained another 350 acres of land, and on 9/23/1736, an additional 100 acres, all in Chester Co., Pennsylvania. He and Lydia lived in East Nottingham Township, Chester County, where their nine children were born, until 1739, when they removed to Frederick County, Virginia. Arthur was granted a certificate from Nottingham Monthly Meetings to Hopewell Monthly Meetings in Frederick Co., Va., on 3/19/1739.

Since the Barrett name is so intimately associated with the early history and settlement of the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, it seems appropriate at this time to discuss briefly the founding of the colony.

One of the outstanding figures was Alexander Ross, a Quaker of Scotch-Irish descent, who was brought to this country as an indentured servant when about eleven years of age. Ross settled in Chester Co., Pa., and here married Katherine Chambers of Chichester in 1706. Although I have been unable to prove definitely that this Katherine Chambers and Lydia Chambers, who married Arthur Barrett, were sisters, it is my firm conviction that they were. Both were married about the same time in Chester County, and both moved to Frederick Co., Va., within a few years of one another. Further evidence to support this contention is the fact that Arthur Barrett witnessed a deed of Ross to John Nickline for 396 acres of land in Orange County (later Frederick County); and Lydia Barrett witnessed Alexander Ross's will.

In 1733, Alexander Ross and several other Pennsylvania Quakers obtained a grant for 100,000 acres of land from the Governor and Council of Virginia, on a stream in that state called Opecan. Seventy families were issued patents to this land, which were issued under the sale of the colony and which were grants from the Crown, free from any obligation of feudal service to the Fairfax family, who claimed the land as Lord Proprietors of the Northern Neck of Virginia. The land was held under the ancient English tenure of free soccage, and was considered a part of the Manor of East Greenwich in the County of Kent.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1862. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's views on the state of the Union and the progress of the war.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War Department, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the military operations of the Army during the year 1861, and also gives a list of the names of the officers who have been promoted during the year.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy Department, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Navy during the year 1861, and also gives a list of the names of the officers who have been promoted during the year.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861, and also gives a list of the names of the officers who have been promoted during the year.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the Treasury, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861, and also gives a list of the names of the officers who have been promoted during the year.

Alexander Ross settled on 2373 acres of land in what is now Frederick Co., Va., lying about six miles north of Winchester. It was on part of this land that Hopewell Meeting House was built and still stands, ten acres being granted by Ross for this purpose. Nearby he established his home, where he was living at the time of his death in 1748.

A meeting for worship was established at Hopewell in 1734, and Hopewell Monthly Meetings for business were established the following year, under authority of East Nottingham Monthly Meetings and Chester Quarterly Meetings. The first meeting house was doubtless constructed of logs, and may have been erected as early as 1734 or 1735. The present structure, built from native limestone, was constructed in 1759, and was enlarged by an addition in 1788. Just east of the meeting house is the burial ground, an acre of ground nearly square in shape, enclosed by a wall of limestone well laid up without mortar. Here, according to church records, are buried Arthur and Lydia Barrett, as well as many of their descendants. Many of the old stones are weathered, and therefore the exact location of their graves is not certain.

Arthur and Lydia Barrett lived on 710 acres of land in Frederick Co., Va., located on the west slope of Apple Pie Ridge. This is about seven miles north of Winchester and one mile from the town of Whitehall. He purchased the land for £ 68 on 2/7/1744 from the executors of the estate of Benjamin Borden, deceased. Here he lived until his death in 1745. An abstract of his will, as recorded in Will Bk. 1., pg. 43, Frederick Co. Va., is as follows:

3/20/1745. Arthur Barrett, of Opeckan, Frederick Co., Va.; will of. Wife, Lydia, executrix. To son, William Barrett, 100 acres of land. To son, James Barrett, 200 acres of land. To son, John Barrett, 100 acres of land. To son, Benjamin Barrett, the remaining part of the plantation after his mother's death. Legacies of £ 20 each to sons, Jacob Barrett and Thomas Barrett. Personal estate to wife, Lydia. Witnesses: James Wright Sr., Josiah Ballenger, and Thomas Wright. Proved 6/4/1745.

The following children were born to Arthur and Lydia (Chambers) Barrett in Chester County, Pennsylvania.

1. John Barrett, born 10/23/1707, was married at East Nottingham Meeting on 10/11/1735 to Mary Pugh. He was reported by Nottingham Meetings on 4/16/1739 to be leaving soon for the confines of Hopewell Meetings in Frederick Co., Virginia.

John owned about 100 acres of land in Frederick County, adjoining that of his brothers James and William. His will, proved in Frederick County on 12/6/1763, left property to his widow, Mary, and his brothers Thomas, William, James, Benjamin and Jacob, so presumably he had no children. His wife, Mary, also left a will, which was proved in Frederick County on 12/4/1781.

2. Arthur Barrett, born 11/7/1709, was married at East Nottingham Meeting on 10/7/1734, to Hannah Brown, daughter of Messer Brown of East Nottingham Township. Arthur remained in Chester County, Pa., and died intestate at an early age, the administration of his estate being granted to his widow, Hannah, on 6/1/1743. Hannah remarried William Sheppard, the marriage being reported by Nottingham Meeting on 12/18/1743. Arthur and Hannah had two daughters -- Lydia, who married Timothy Kirk and Jane, who married William Alloway.
3. Thomas Barrett, born 1/16/1712, married Hannah Oldham and lived in Chester County, Pennsylvania. Since Thomas is the son from whom our Barrett line descends, more will be said of him later.
4. William Barrett, born 2/15/1713, requested a certificate from Nottingham Meetings to Hopewell Meetings in Frederick Co., Va., on 7/20/1740. His wife's name was Lydia, and they lived on land in Frederick County which has been deeded to him by Lord Fairfax on 11/21/1760, adjoining property of his brothers James and John. His will was proved in Frederick County on 10/5/1791, and mentions three daughters -- Rachel, wife of Mordecai Walker; Mary, wife of Reuben Case; and Lydia, wife of Henry Lewis. No male issue is mentioned in the will, so presumably he had no sons. His wife, Lydia, apparently preceded him in death, since she is also unmentioned in the will.
5. Richard Barrett, born 10/20/1717, apparently died young.
6. James Barrett, born 1/10/1721, lived in Frederick Co., Va., on land adjoining that of his brothers John and William. His wife's name was Sarah. On 8/14/1759, James and Sarah Barrett sold some land which he had inherited by will from his father, Arthur Barrett. On 4/28/1768, James sold some land which had been granted him by deed from Thomas Lord Fairfax, Proprietor of the Northern Neck of Virginia, bearing the date 9/12/1766, which adjoined his own farm. And on 4/3/1769, he and his brother, Benjamin, sold 150 acres of land which was a part of the original 710 acres purchased by their father from the Borden executors, to their nephew, Arthur Barrett, son of Thomas Barrett of Chester County, Pennsylvania. James left no will in Frederick County, so may have been living elsewhere at the time of his death. He had the following known children: David, Nathan, Arthur, Joseph, John, James, Phoebe and Rachel. Phoebe married John Wright, and Rachel married Isaac Nevitt.

7. Joseph Barrett, born 5/10/1723, probably died young.
8. Benjamin Barrett, born 5/14/1726, resided in Frederick Co., Va., where his will was proved on 8/4/1778. He married Eleanor Rogers, daughter of John and Ellen (Pugh) Rogers of Frederick Co., Va., who survived him. They were the parents of six sons and four daughters. The sons were Thomas, Richard, Benjamin, David, John and Jonathan. The daughters were Phebe, who married Jonathan Pickering; Eleanor, who married Henry Cowgill; and Sidney, who married John Crampton. Most of the children remained in Virginia, but some removed to Ohio, settling in Highland County and raising large families.
9. Jacob Barrett, born 4/1/1730, lived in Frederick County, Virginia. He had the following children: Joseph, Benjamin, Jeremiah, Arthur, Jacob and Lydia. He left no will in Frederick County, so may have been living elsewhere at the time of his death.

II. THOMAS BARRETT, third son of Arthur and Lydia (Chambers) Barrett, was born in East Nottingham Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania on 1/16/1712.

He was married at East Nottingham Meeting on 9/29/1739 to Hannah Oldham daughter of Thomas and Susanna (Few) Oldham who was born about 1721 and who died on 7/12/1806 at the age of 85 years.

Thomas Oldham, Hannah's father, lived in East Nottingham Township, Chester Co., Pa., and was married at Chester Monthly Meetings in 1704 to Susanna Few, daughter of Richard Few, Jr., and his wife Susanna. They declared their intentions to marry for the first time at Chester Monthly Meetings on 12/28/1703 and for the second time on 1/27/1704.

According to Barrett family records, the Oldham family came to this country from Wales. Thomas Oldham was a blacksmith by trade, but owned certain farmland in Nottingham Township, which he deeded to his grandson, Thomas Oldham, a few years before his death. His first wife, Susanna Few Oldham, died young, and Thomas remarried Rachel Littler, widow of Samuel Littler, at Nottingham Meetings on 5/3/1728. Rachel died on 7/22/1762, Thomas on 2/16/1756. Both left wills mentioning their son-in-law, Thomas Barrett, who was made executor of their respective estates.

Susanna Few, Hannah Oldham's mother, was the daughter of Richard Few, Jr., and his wife, Susanna, of Wedhampton, Wiltshire, England. Richard was born on 12/26/1653 and died before 1682. His wife, Susanna, was buried at Devizes, Wiltshire, England on 10/7/1680.

Richard Few, Sr., of Market Levington, Wiltshire, England was a shoemaker, and a member of Levington Meeting, Society of Friends. His first wife, Jane, died on 4/24/1674. His second wife, Julian, survived him. On 6/2/1681 he purchased 500 acres of land to be set out in Pennsylvania from William Penn. Of this, he conveyed 250 acres to his widowed daughter, Joan Self, of Market Levington on 9/5/1681. This land was located in Warminster Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. The will of Richard Few, Sr., was proved on 1/26/1689 and is recorded at Philadelphia. In it is mentioned his granddaughter, Susanna Few, to whom he left a legacy.

Thomas Barrett died in East Nottingham Township, Chester Co., Pa. on 2/19/1782. The following is an abstract of his will:

12/7/1781. Thomas Barrett, East Nottingham, Chester Co., Pa., will of. To wife, Hannah certain personal property. To eldest son, Arthur Barrett, about 40 acres of land on which he now lives, and also any land which might be bequeathed by my brother. John Barrett, deceased. To son, Joseph Barrett, a legacy of £ 25 when he reaches the age of 21, to be paid by son, Arthur, and in case of Joseph's death to be paid to daughter Mary. To son, William Barrett, most of real and personal estate, he taking charge of his mother and sister, Mary. To sons, Thomas and Joseph Barrett legacies of £ 15 each when they reach the age of 21. To daughter, Rebecca, wife of William Haines, 20 shillings. To daughter, Rachel, wife of John Pugh, 20 shillings. To daughter, Lydia, wife of William Knight, 20 shillings. To daughter, Susanah, wife of William Rogers £ 10. To daughter, Deborah, wife of Lewellin Percy, £ 10. To daughter, Hannah, wife of Benjamin Brown, £ 10 and a feather bed and bedding. To daughter, Mary Barrett, 40 shillings a year after the death of her mother, if she remains single. Executors: wife, Hannah Barrett, and son, William Barrett. Witnesses: Roger Kirk, David Grown, Timothy Kirk, Jr.

The following children were born to Thomas and Hannah (Oldham) Barrett in East Nottingham Township, Chester Co. Pennsylvania:

1. Rebecca Barrett, born 8/7/1740, was married at East Nottingham Meeting on 12/1/1774 to William Haines, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Haines.
2. Arthur Barrett, born 9/10/1742, was married on 10/8/1773 to Elizabeth Baldwin, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Campbell) Baldwin.
3. Rachel Barrett, born 9/12/1744, was married at East Nottingham Meeting on 5/9/1771 to John Pugh. She died on 7/17/1800.
4. Thomas Barrett, born 11/23/1746.
5. Lydia Barrett, born 7/30/1749, was reported by Nottingham Meetings on 12/30/1769 to be married out of unity to William Knight, Jr.
6. Susanah Barrett, born 7/30/1752, was reported by Nottingham Meetings on 10/27/1770 to be married out of unity to William Rogers, and was disowned on 11/24/1770. William Rogers was born in Maryland on 8/20/1749, his parents having come to America from England early in the 18th century. He

III. ARTHUR BARRETT, eldest son of Thomas and Hannah (Oldham) Barrett, was born in East Nottingham Township, Chester Co., Pa. on 9/10/1742. He was a weaver by trade.

On 10/8/1773 Arthur Barrett was married to Elizabeth Baldwin, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Campbell) Baldwin, who was born on 9/14/1756. This marriage was reported as being out of unity by Nottingham Meetings on 11/27/1773, and Arthur was disowned for this reason on 12/25/1773.

Arthur Barrett had purchased land in Frederick Co., Va., from some of his uncles before his marriage, this land being a part of the original 710 acres which his grandfather had purchased from the Borden executors. Here he and Elizabeth lived after the Revolutionary War, and here most of his children were born. However, during the war his residence was Chester Co., Pa., since Arthur served as a private in the Second Battalion of Chester County Militia, commanded by Col. Evan Evans.

In 1803, Arthur Barrett and his family removed to Ohio, passing through the section on which the town of Cadiz now stands, and on which at that time there stood a solitary log cabin. Following an Indian trail and cutting his way through the forests, he reached the forks of Brushy Fork Creek. Here, in Cadiz Township, Harrison Co., Ohio, he entered 640 acres of land in one tract and 320 acres in another. This land was located about four and one-half miles west of the present town of Cadiz. He eventually owned about 2,000 acres of land, since he gave to each of his children at their marriage 250 acres or its equivalent.

Although disowned by the Society of Friends for his marriage to Elizabeth Baldwin, a staunch Methodist, he apparently attended Quaker meetings in Ohio. An interesting story, handed down through family tradition, is that Arthur and Elizabeth would ride together on horseback each Sunday morning until they reached a fork in the road. Here they would part company, Arthur attending the Quaker meetings and Elizabeth the church of her faith. This continued until Arthur was taken seriously ill, and was nursed back to health by his faithful wife. The first Sunday that Arthur was again able to attend church after his illness, they again reached the fork in the road. Whereupon, Arthur turned to Elizabeth and said, "I think I'll go with thee this morning, Betty", and turned his horse and rode the rest of the way with his wife to her church. He apparently later joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, to which Elizabeth belonged.

Arthur Barrett died on his farm in Cadiz Township on 3/7/1828. Elizabeth preceded him in death on 7/10/1811. Both are buried on the old homestead, the graves until recently being marked by native stones. However, through contributions of members of the Barrett family, a suitable marker has now been erected to the memory of this Revolutionary War veteran and his wife.

He removed in the spring of 1848 to Bucyrus Twp., Crawford Co., Ohio, and purchased 200 acres of land on the Plains, afterwards adding 160 acres more. His mother and brother, Enos Barrett, joined him the following year, and they all lived on the same farm until 1856, when Enos moved to Iowa. His mother went to live with her daughter, Louisa Barrett, in the town of Bucyrus, Ohio.

David and his family remained on the place of original settlement until 1860, when he moved to another farm of 155 acres in Bucyrus Township. David and Winifred Barrett lived a short while in Virginia, but in 1811 removed to Belmont County, Ohio, where David was sent as a Captain in the Militia to help guard caravans against attacks by the Indians. Ohio in those days was heavily timbered, and the woods were inhabited by bear and other wild animals. David's wife was constantly warned by her husband to keep the children indoors because of danger from Indians and wild animals.

There was no formal schooling in these times, and David taught his children in the home. An arithmetic, written by him in a blank leather-bound book, bearing the date 1801, is at present in the possession of the widow of his grandson, David H. Barrett. The book is filled with problems and explanations for their solution, and no doubt the book was passed around among the children for each to copy and learn.

Winifred Kirby was born on 3/12/1787, the daughter of John Kirby of Frederick County, Virginia. According to family tradition, Winifred's parents were killed when she was quite young when the wagon in which they were traveling overturned and rolled down a mountainside. The Kirbys were traveling in company with the Arthur Barretts, and the orphan Winifred was taken by the Barretts and raised as their own. Later she married their son, David.

David Barrett died on 11/27/1844, and is buried in a Quaker cemetery at Flushing in Belmont Co., Ohio. After his death, Winifred lived with her children until her death at Cadiz, Ohio, on 6/11/1867. She is buried in the Cassville Cemetery in Harrison County.

When Mary was quite young her father died from malaria, and the widow McKeever went to work for her brother, a hatter, at Cadiz, Ohio. Here she met and married William Barrett as her second husband. Mary McKeever, daughter by her first marriage, eventually married William Barrett's younger brother, Albert Gallatin Barrett. TO THE EDITOR:
I am writing to you to inform you of the results of my research on the properties of the new material which I have discovered. The material has many interesting properties and I believe it will be of great value to the scientific community.

The material is a new type of polymer which has been synthesized by a process which I have developed. It has a unique structure and exhibits a number of unusual properties, including high strength, low weight, and resistance to corrosion. I have conducted extensive experiments and the results are very promising.

I have also conducted a series of tests to determine the mechanical properties of the material. The results show that it has a tensile strength which is comparable to that of steel, but with a much lower density. This makes it an ideal material for many applications, particularly in the field of aerospace.

I have also conducted a series of tests to determine the chemical properties of the material. The results show that it is highly resistant to oxidation and corrosion, even in the presence of strong acids and bases. This makes it an ideal material for many applications, particularly in the field of chemical processing.

I believe that this material has many potential applications and I am confident that it will be of great value to the scientific community. I am therefore writing to you to inform you of the results of my research and to request that you publish my findings in your journal.

I am very grateful for your attention and for the opportunity to share my research with you. I am sure that your journal will be a valuable resource for the scientific community and I am confident that my findings will be of great interest to your readers.

In 1848, Isaac Walker and his family moved from Ohio to Illinois, then to Iowa, then back to Ohio. In 1856, as members of the Ohio Company, they came with the A. G. Barretts to Marshall Co., Kansas, settling on land near the present site of Winifred. The town of Winifred is named after Mrs. Walker, and the old homestead was known as "West Fork".

When Winifred was married, her father gave her as a wedding gift a walnut bureau, which he had made for her. When she and Isaac came to Kansas in 1856, they stored their household goods with her uncle in Iowa. In 1858, Mrs. Walker made a trip back to Birmingham, Iowa, with ox team and wagon to get the precious bureau. She started out the first of June and returned early in September.

Winifred Walker was a pioneer in every sense of the word. When her husband, Isaac, was serving in Co. D., 8th Kansas Infantry, in the Civil War, and her two sons were both away to war, she took care of the farm alone, performing the duties of the household as well as the labors in the fields.

David B. Walker served in the 9th Kansas Infantry during the Civil War. He lived near Winifred, Marshall Co., Kansas, until a few years before his death, when he moved to Frankfort. One of his most unusual characteristics was his familiarity with the various tribes of Indians. An old Indian trail passed near the Walker homestead, and David learned to distinguish the tribes by their dress and emblems. In later years he loved to tell stories of the early days in Kansas and of his personal encounters with the Indians.
